

Our reference: 2018-507471

9 August 2018

Dear

I acknowledge receipt of your email dated 13 July 2018 in which you made an access application for certain information under the Freedom of Information Act 2016 (the FOI Act).

With reference to Blocks 19 and 20, Section 22 Kingston, Units Plan No. 585, your access application was expressed in the following way:

‘...all documents concerning the matters raised. If this is not possible please forward to me a copy of the appropriate FOI form.

Please provide details any amendments to the original plan that changed the layout of the garage area and reduced the common area on the approved plan, turning it into parking for different lots.

Please provide copies of any documents amendments that changed the position of the parking lots on the original approved plan...’

This letter constitutes notice of my decision on your access application. The ombudsman has appointed me as an information officer the purposes of the FOI Act. This appointment authorises me to make this decision.

Decision

I have decided, pursuant to s 35(1)(b) of the FOI Act, that this Office does not hold any information falling within the scope of your access application.

Statement of reasons

As required by s 34 of the FOI Act, we have searched our records to identify any documents or other information falling within the scope of your access application. In undertaking this search, we looked for complaint-related documents on our electronic complaint management records and corporate documents on our electronic document management system. Our searches did not locate any documents or other information relevant to your access application.

Review rights

Ombudsman review

Under s 73 of the FOI Act, you may apply in writing to this Office for a review of this decision. To do so, you should write to the ombudsman requesting a review, to actfoi@ombudsman.gov.au or using the contact information set out at the foot of the first page of this letter.

The review application must be made within 20 working days after the day this decision is published in our disclosure log which is available at: <http://ombudsman.act.gov.au/contact-us/seeking-information/disclosure-log>. While no particular form is required to apply for review of this decision, we recommend that applicants use the form available at: <http://www.ombudsman.act.gov.au/Freedom-of-Information>.

ACAT review

Should you be dissatisfied with the ombudsman review decision, you would be able to apply to the ACT Civil and Administrative Tribunal (ACAT) for review. Further information, including contact information for the ACAT, and information about how to make an application to the ACAT is available at: <https://www.acat.act.gov.au/>.

Judicial review

A further option for review of this decision may be available under the Administrative Decisions (Judicial Review) Act 1989. Advice about pursuing this option may be obtained from a qualified legal practitioner.

If you require clarification of any of the matters discussed in this letter you may contact me using the contact information set out at the foot of the first page of this letter.

Yours sincerely

Gregory Parkhurst
Information Officer
